Cub Scout Pack Meetings

The monthly pack meeting brings together boys from every grade, their leaders, and their families, to participate in a large-scale event that serves as a showcase for everything the boys have learned and done in their individual den meetings. The pack meeting gives the boys a larger experience beyond their own den, and helps them to connect their individual activities to the entire Cub Scouting program.

Cub Scout Den Meetings

A den is a group of boys, within the pack, that meets several times a month between pack meetings. The boys in a den are usually all at the same grade level. The den structure allows boys to build relationships with leaders and other boys. The den provides opportunities for activities that would be difficult with a large group.

Pack & Den Meeting Attendance

Every Cub's adult partner is welcome to attend den meetings with the Cub Scouts (den leaders will appreciate the help). The whole family is welcome at the pack meetings. At the Lion and Tiger Den levels, adult partners are required to be present with their scout at any den and pack meeting.
